Kimberly Byrnes
Manager, Policy Advocacy

Kimberly Byrnes serves as the Manager of Policy Advocacy for the U.S.-India Business Council (USIBC). In this capacity, Ms. Byrnes manages the Digital Economy and Media and Entertainment portfolios. On behalf of these companies, Ms. Byrnes advises and advocates to the U.S. government and the Government of India on various issues relating to information, communications and technology (ICT), broadcasting, and other issues relating to international trade between the U.S. and India.

Ms. Byrnes also heads up USIBC's education initiative which is aimed at strengthening institutional linkages between academia, industry, and NGOs focusing on the elementary, vocational, and higher education sectors in both countries. Under the auspices of this initiative, USIBC served as one of the premiere partners during the first U.S.-India Higher Education Summit this past year.

During her tenure with USIBC, Ms. Byrnes has also been responsible for programs and events as well as communications and marketing.

Prior to joining USIBC, Ms. Byrnes was an educator for K-12 students with learning disabilities. In this capacity, she spent a year in the Dominican Republic serving with Solid Rock Missions as an English Teacher. Ms. Byrnes is very active in the musical arts and spent eight years performing and teaching with the Boston Crusaders Drum and Bugle Corps. In addition to her role at USIBC, Ms. Byrnes currently works as a visual instructor for the McLean High School Marching Band.

Ms. Byrnes received her M.A. in International Studies from North Carolina State University in Raleigh, North Carolina, and her B.A. in Elementary and Special Education from Boston College in Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts where she participated in a study abroad program in Madrid, Spain. Ms. Byrnes is fluent in Spanish.
