Michael Green

Manager, Policy Advocacy

Michael serves as Manager, Policy Advocacy for the Life Sciences and Legal & Professional Services portfolios with the U.S. – India Business Council.

During law school, Michael held an agency program externship with the International Division of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. During his time with the Chamber, he worked on policy issues, including broadening international trade, foreign aid reform, and the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act.

Michael also served for the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California, where he wrote orders for Judge Roger T. Benitez on copyright and healthcare matters. In line with his interest in business development, Michael assisted clients on corporate and non-profit formation at his school's Entrepreneurship Clinic.

During his undergraduate studies, Michael traveled to over twenty countries across Asia, Africa, Europe, and the Americas, including India where he did a home-stay in Chennai.

Michael grew up outside of Philadelphia where attended St. Joseph's Prep and competed on the school's crew team. Michael earned his B.A. in Political Science and Classics from the University of Pittsburgh and his J.D. from the University of San Diego School of Law. His interests include international business and foreign policy issues, small business development, skiing, sailing, rowing, theatre, and Philadelphia sports teams.
